1. The entire population has been cleared out of a fifty kilometer zone on the Rumanian side of the Rumanian-Yugoslav frontier. The army has moved into this zone, where only military personnel are allowed to move about.
2. Large quantities of construction materiel is being forwarded to this zone. The army is known to be building what are described as "casemates" (presumably, pillboxes or bunkers) and is doing other military construction. Soviet military authorities in Rumania control all traffic and all movement toward the Rumanian-Yugoslav frontier.
